PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, April 1.—Among those leaving for their summer homes last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and their niece, Miss Filby and Mr. and Mrs. Emmerick and so far this week Mr. and Mrs. Brecknell and little son, Howard.

Elmo Dupont came home last week to visit his parents and see the races.

A. J. Hicks and Chas. Milburn drove down to New Smyrna last week to transact some business there.

E. H. Herrick, of New York, has purchased all of the land estate here, and we are told will divide it into truck farms for a number of German farmers. This will be a fine thing for Port Orange and we wish them every success in their undertaking.

Jim Davis shot a large wild cat Sunday evening near the residence of Fayette McDonald.

Otis and Fred Johnson have just returned from Miami where they had towed a large houseboat.

Millard Patillo, one of our progressive young merchants, is in Osteen visiting his parents.

Mrs. C. Christman was hostess of the Church Tea Thursday.

INCIPIENT BLAZE CAUSES

CONSIDERABLE ALARM.

Big Crowd Gathers in Surprisingly Short Time.—No Serious Damage Done.

Wednesday afternoon, shortly after five o'clock the citizens of Daytona were startled by the clanging of the fire bell and the passing of the word that the house occupied by Marshal John Myers and family on Palmetto avenue, first door north of Loomis avenue, was burning. In a few moments all the avenues leading to that point were thronged with people afoot, on bicycles, motorcycles, and in automobiles, carriages and other vehicles of all descriptions.

Notice of the fire had been telephoned in to the central office and the young lady on duty at once reported to Mayor E. W. Greene, who was in his office at the time. Ben Tinkham, the night watchman, who was also at hand, ran to the bell rope and rang the general alarm of fire and then turning this duty over to J. F. Brown and others who had arrived on the scene, he started for the chemical engine, stationed near by and assisted by R. T. McAdams got it out and was off for the fire in double quick time, but there was no need fortunately for the engine, the fire having been extinguished by Mr. Myers' son, Cecil, assisted by Lee Rodgers, who happened to be passing the house at the time the blaze was discovered.

The building is an old one, part of the J. M. Garland estate, and the shingles had become soft and spongy with age and a spark escaping, it was thought from a leak in the chimney, had ignited the roof at the northeast corner of the house.

A high, north wind was blowing at the time and but for the timely work of young Myers and Mr. Rodgers, a serious conflagration would have resulted, as the house adjoining on the south, occupied by W. F. Holmes and family and owned by Mrs. C. R. Simonds of Jacksonville, must have burned with the Myers dwelling and the Davidson residence and others on the south side of Loomis avenue would have been endangered. It was marvelous what a crowd collected in a few minutes following the alarm.

The Flyer Leaves.

C. S. Bates the owner of the aeroplane which was on exhibition on the beach during the automobile races, left Thursday on his return to Chicago, and the flyer will be shipped to him by freight. Mr. Bates was greatly disappointed at not being able to make a flight while here and had it not been for the disabling of his engine, he would have remained until the wind conditions permitted his ascent. He was just on the point of flight when the accident to his machine occurred, in fact, one of the photographers present at the time has written Mr. Bates that he secured a good picture of the aeroplane, as it was poised in the air, clear of the ground on that occasion.

MRS. H. A. BERNARD, Editor.

SEABREEZE, March 29.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Coryell, of Ypsilanti, Mich., and son, Chas. Coryell, and wife, of Toronto, Canada, and Miss Smith, of Ypsilanti, Mich., who have spent the season here, left today for their respective homes. This is their second winter at Seabreeze. Mr. Coryell, Sr., first came here in very feeble health and made a wonderfully rapid recovery. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Waterson, of Halifax, avenue, and it was through their influence that they were first induced to come to Seabreeze.

Mr. Gardiner is having his river lot North of Glenview boulevard cleaned up. Dr. Bigelow and J. Ralph Wilcox made the boat trip to their Tomoka farms on Saturday and put in a busy day doing up the spring chores.

W. W. Wood, a skilled cabinet maker, has been at work for some time rebuilding some fine desks belonging to Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Potter, one of especial worth having belonged to Mrs. Potter's father. He will also build some fine sideboards for the new Clar endon.

Miss Mary Lou Eaves, after a serious illness, is slowly regaining health.

Theo. Rauschenbaum and wife, who have been occupying R. T. Butler's cottage, on Pinewood avenue, leave this week for their home at Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. J. B. Minnis one of the pleasant family at Miss Russell's, left this morning for her home at Knoxville, Tenn., where she was preceded by Col. Minnis about ten days ago. It is quite likely that Mr. Minnis will become a property owner at Seabreeze before another season opens.

SEABREEZE, March 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. F. Cordis entertained at whist at their beach cottage Friday afternoon of last week the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Fogg, Mr. and Mrs. Erreger, Dr. and Mrs. Each, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, and their guests, Edw. Morris, of Springfield, Mass.

Wm. B. Hatch left Saturday morning on a business trip to his home, Ypsilanti, Mich., to be gone about ten days. Kit Turner, of the blue grass region is here on a visit with friends, guest at Miss Russell's boarding house.

Col. Taylor and wife, of Memphis, who have spent most of the winter on Ocean boulevard, left Sunday for their home. They declare Seabreeze is the most delightful of all winter resorts.

Miss Harvey, one of the charming tourist young ladies, left Sunday afternoon for her home at Covington, Ky.

C. M. Carrier, C. F. Burman and Misses Burman and Hatch spent Sunday forenoon at DeLand, making the trip by motor car.

About forty trunks left the peninsula Sunday, and almost as many came in on the afternoon train. It is a mistake that a majority of our tourist friends miss the enjoyment of one of our prettiest months, April, all that we can say to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mrs. Phillips and daughter, Miss Nellie Phillips, of Atlanta, left Sunday afternoon for St. Augustine en route home. Mrs. Phillips was in very bad health when she came to Seabreeze three months ago, and is now a well woman. She enjoyed the fishing very much and made some fine records.

Dr. Marsh preached his usually interesting sermon at "the little church around the corner" on Glenview boulevard Sunday afternoon. Dr. Evernden, as Sunday school superintendent, has built up a good attendance among the tourist young people. Billie Davis is secretary, and reported 51 collections, which is creditable for the size of the school.

SEABREEZE, March 21.—Guests at the Princess Islena were well entertained Sunday and Monday evenings by DeWight Prouty, of Boston, with choice records on his splendid phonograph.

The following arrivals were noted at the Princess Islena yesterday: Miss M. W. Clark, Owensboro, Ky.; Mrs. E. J. Funk and brother, R. W. Pike, Grant, Fla.; S. P. Snider, Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellis, who have spent the winter on Halifax avenue, have taken the Smith flat, on Grandview avenue.

Miss Helen Platt, of Riverside, Ill., and friend, Mrs. L. A. Rowland, of St. Paul, Minn., arrived from the South yesterday and are guests of Miss Russell.

Mrs. L. Z. Burdick's Sunday school class are preparing an Easter entertainment consisting of songs and recitations to be held at the M. E. church on the afternoon of April 11th.

Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Campbell, guests of The Mayfield, and the gracious hostess, Mrs. Rankin, had a delightful trip up the Tomoka Monday. They counted eleven alligators, and enjoyed the rain on the river and the soft gray mist.

Miss Elizabeth Maze, of New York city, has purchased of M. L. Waggoner, lots 1 and 30 on University avenue and will build a winter home in the fall. She is the mother of C. Montgomery Maze, a prominent real estate dealer of New York city. Mrs. Maze has visited the West coast as well as the East Coast and gives Seabreeze the very decided preference over anything she has seen.

The town council met in special session Monday night to consider an ordinance granting to Geo. N. Davis, C. C. Tuxbury and Thos. D. Bradfield a franchise for an electric street car line through certain streets of the town. The ordinance passed on first reading. A permit was granted to C. G. Smith to lay water pipes along certain streets.

DAYTONA BEACH, March 29.—J. J. Haney, a former resident of Seabreeze, is here from Atlanta, Ga., on a visit with friends. Mr. Haney says good prices for cotton has brought prosperity to the farmers of the "cracker State."

Mrs. Thornburg and charming daughter, Miss Thornburg, who have spent some time at Surf Crest, left the first of the week for Winter Park to visit friends, enroute to St. Augustine and Knoxville, Tenn., their home town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes, Miss Mullett and Mrs. Agnes Charley had a pleasant boat trip to Mr. Zimmerman's grove Saturday in Mr. Ayers' good traveler.

By invitation, W. S. Holmes will address the Epworth League Sunday evening on the subject of Missions.

Mrs. Smith-Young and nephew, left Saturday for Atlanta, where they will be joined by Mr. Young, and continue their journey to Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet and friend, Miss Brewer, who have occupied apartments in the Smith block, Seabreeze avenue, left the latter part of last week for St. Augustine, and points north to Illinois. Mr. Sweet assisted H. G. Wilson in the real estate business last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer, pleasant roomers in the Wilson cottage, on Seabreeze avenue, left last week for their Northern home. Mr. Mortimer purchased a lot on Palmetto avenue last winter, and it is understood that he will build before another season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hambrick, who are spending the winter on Seabreeze avenue, made up a charter party in the "Wide-a-Wake" for the inlet, Saturday, and had a fine outing.

The School Board Trustees met in regular session Friday night of last week.

DAYTONA BEACH, March 30.—Mrs. Page and daughter, who stopped with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reed on the river front for a few days during the races, left Saturday for their home, at St. Joseph, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ainsworth will close their winter home on the Halifax, Friday, and leave for Illinois.

Miss Falcon came up from Melbourne the latter part of last week for a few days on the beach, and was a guest at Pinehurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Speers and son, of Varnell, Ga., spent several days at The Pinehurst, enroute home.

William Ronald, who came over from Rollins Collins to enjoy the races, left Monday on the return trip.

Thomas Oyama has let the contract for a two-story business block on the ground recently purchased of Dr. Van Valzah, on Seabreeze avenue, adjoining his concrete building. Seabreeze avenue is bound to be a good business street in the near future. It already affords two good groceries, a book and gentleman's clothing store, millinery establishment and bakery.

The students of Seabreeze-Daytona Beach public school are working zealous for second place in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest, and the various reports are watched with eager interest.

DAYTONA BEACH, March 31.—The town council met in regular session Monday night. The new officers were duly qualified, and the routine business taken up. The same ordinance for granting a franchise for an electric street car line through certain streets of Daytona Beach to the same grantees, namely, Geo. N. Davis, C. C. Tuxbury and Thos. D. Bradfield, was brought before the council and passed on first and second readings. Good street car service at a reasonable rate will do more for the peninsula towns, if it connects with the depot, than any other one item that may come before the people for some time.

E. A. Branch has just leased Ocean Villa and the adjoining cottage to Mrs. W. W. Alcott, of DeLand, who will conduct it as a boarding house during the season.

Mrs. Boughton, of Palatka, came up from the Keys and is visiting Mrs. E. A. Branch.

There will be an ice cream social at the parsonage Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Schreier, tourists who were sojourning at the Branch house, left yesterday for St. Augustine enroute to their home in Illinois.

E. L. Culnor and party, St. Louis, Mo.; H. C. Turner, Lakeland; Mrs. H. A. Davis, Centerville, R. I., are at the Seaside Inn.

DEMENTED WOMAN ESCAPES

FROM DAYTONA HOSPITAL.

Clad Only in Night Raiment She Jumped From a Window
And Disappeared.

Wednesday afternoon, when train No. 74, northbound reached Daytona the conductor left word with parties at the depot that a woman, evidently demented, had left the train at this point and C. Nussbaum found Justice Titus and imparted the fact to him.

Mr. Titus and Marshal Myers found the woman, who in the meantime had secured a hat and cloak from Mrs. Troy at the Troy house, on Volusia avenue, having alighted from the train minus these articles, and took her in a carriage to the Daytona Hospital and Sanitarium where she was cared for and put to bed.

In the early evening the marshal received a wire from Sheriff C. J. Perry, at St. Augustine, asking him to arrest and hold Margaret Ledwith, demented, who had left train No. 74 at Daytona, until someone could be sent here for her. Mr. Myers wired in return that the woman was here and to send for her, only to find shortly afterward that she had escaped from the hospital by jumping from a window, clothed only in her night dress. She appealed to Mrs. Fellett for clothing, saying she was escaping from her husband, who had threatened to kill her, and was furnished with a dress and other articles of wearing apparel.

Her brother and sister reached this city from St. Augustine shortly after midnight, only to learn of the escape and disappearance and at this writing the lady had not been found.

Geo. Somers' house is nearing completion.

KINGSTON

KINGSTON, April 1.—Mrs. Frierson and two children accompanied by her sister, Miss Katie Yeagen, all of DeLand, were over last week attending the races. They were guests of Mrs. H. T. McCallan.

Wm. Crane and wife, who have been living for some time on Mulberry street, and Harry Van Dine, who was a guest at the Ferris, have gone back to DeLand. The two men were driving hacks here for John Cranor, of DeLand.

Kingston School made quite a sprint on the home run in the piano contest. Her patrons stood by her, and her friends came able to her assistance, and win or lose, we are profoundly grateful to all who rendered aid and feel that we have fought a good fight, for we recognized in the Seabreeze High School and Wilman's opera house, foemen worthy of our steel.

Mrs. V. C. Fugmay, of Holly Hill, is assisting Mrs. Rich this week in her dressmaking business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McClellan were called to DeLand yesterday to the funeral of their nephew, Wilbur Herbert, who died very suddenly Tuesday night.

Miss Marvin Harwell, who fell down the stairway at the boarding house a few days ago and received quite a severe sprain of the wrist, is able to attend to her duties in the schoolroom by carrying her lame arm in a sling.

Daytona has shipped three solid cars of celery this week, O. L. Spring sending one on Monday followed yesterday by one by W. F. Holmes and one made up by various growers. This begins to look like business, as there is much more to follow.
